Below is the information about where the next JRA water quality trading meeting will be held. EPA will pay for our travel this time, and I checked with Musa – the government rate is better than what they are getting, so we should go ahead and make our own reservations. However, we will be getting some meals at the conference so you won't need a full per diem. I think we are getting lunch & dinner the first day and breakfast & lunch the second day.

I told Musa who is coming for sure – Christine, Susan & myself, and hopefully Dustan (let me know if OCE can't cover it), and that Bill would be eating meals with us even if he's not staying at the hotel.

As for flights, I made reservations for myself on one that leaves at 7:10 am (Alaska #2136) Aug. 21, getting in at 9:36 which means we would be late for the 10 am start time for the meeting but we can't afford an additional night at hotel. For the return, those who want to can stay for the "open house" scheduled after the meeting ends on Aug. 22 at 3 pm. The open house, explaining what the JRA process is to curious Idaho stakeholders, goes until 5 pm. The return flight options are 4:30 pm, 5:10 pm or 7:30 pm (or even later).

Christine – you and I can car pool to the airport.
